

Crip Camp Screening: July 18

11:30 a.m. – 2:30 p.m. Madison Municipal Bldg, Rm 215

This award winning film viewing is free and open to all. An in-person screening of the film will be followed by a hybrid discussion. CripCamp shows us how a group of young teenagers reclaimed the slur “crip” for themselves, showcasing their resistance, pride, and identity. But what does it actually mean and who can say it? Join the conversation to learn more from people leading the charge of the disability rights movement.

• <https://cripcamp.com>

..... Discussion Moderators

Helen Rottier is a PhD Candidate in Disability Studies at the University of Illinois Chicago. Her research and practice focuses on disabled knowledge production and the experiences of disabled students, staff, and faculty in post-secondary education settings. She is a white, autistic, mad, disabled person living in Madison with her fiancé.

Image description: Helen, a white person with short brown hair and glasses wearing a patterned shirt and tortoiseshell earrings

Kate Moran has been a fat activist, a disability Advocate and an out lesbian for over forty years, each of those identities inform the others. While not at Crip Camp, Kate did briefly live on a disabled lesbian land collective in the early 80s.

Image description: A photo of Kate's face she is wearing a sage green brimless hat and a dark t-shirt and grey hair that was once brown.

In person attendees: Join us in Madison Municipal Building, Room 215. Bring your lunch. Movie snacks will be provided.

Hybrid attendees: View the film <https://cripcamp.com>
Join the Zoom discussion at 1:30 <https://cityofmadison.zoom.us/j/83681756324?pwd=ZnwuUEdkFv6QQ7EWISa5u3NgiFjwaR.1>
Meeting ID: 836 8175 6324 Passcode: 966506

If you need interpretation or an accomodation, please let us know.
rhoyt@cityofmadison.com

DRG
Disability Resource Group

For more information:
Rhoyt@cityofmadison.com
Screening Guide.