Council President Alder Yannette Figueroa Cole, a proud Puerto Rican, advocates for issues impacting brown and black communities in Madison, with a focus on housing, language access, and equitable systems. With a background in Business Process and Data Analysis, she brings valuable expertise to her role in local government, serving on various committees including the Finance Committee and Parks Commission. Since 2021, as the alder for District 10, she has worked to break barriers by providing guidance on navigating city resources and processes. Figueroa Cole's career spans over two decades in the Biotech and Health Services industries, contributing to her diverse skill set. Having called Madison home for over 30 years, she and her family embody a commitment to diversity and inclusion, fostering a welcoming community atmosphere.
